INVITES APPLICANTS FOR THE INAUGURAL
EVERY SURVIVOR HAS A STORY RETREAT

Are you a survivor of a past abusive relationship?

Would you like a chance to connect with other survivors while learning about the power of telling your story as part of the process of overcoming past abuse?

Do you want to explore different avenues for telling your story via spoken word, writing, advocacy, and other creative approaches?

THE DETAILS

When: Saturday, May 19th, 2018, 9 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Where: Near Greensboro, North Carolina (Specific location will be provided only to registered participants)

Cost: Participation in the day-long retreat costs $25 and includes breakfast, lunch, and two snacks. A limited number of need-based scholarships are available for prospective participants for whom the registration fee would be a barrier to participation.

Who is eligible to attend? This retreat is for survivors of past abusive intimate relationships who have been out of any abusive relationship for at least six months prior to the date of the retreat. All participants will be required to participate in a brief telephone interview to ensure that the retreat is a good fit prior to completing registration.

How to register: To register, please visit www.seethetriumph.org for more information.

Your Safety and Empowerment Are our Top Priority

You will have full choice over...

Whether,

When,

How much, &

How...

you share any parts of your personal story with other participants.

It will be possible to participate in the retreat without sharing any personal details with other participants, although there will be opportunities for sharing for participants who would like to do so.
